Every book is an opportunity which can, at times fail, sometimes however a project sprouts spontaneously, as if it was nourished by an underground stream. Always in a new project there's the fears of producing a drop in the ocean, of becoming repititious, the fear of wasting precious paper give way to joy and celebration. Ideas, thoughts, dreams, pencils, inks, paper, computers, friends, silence, lines and beer, centimeters and millimeters meet in one room to make merry in an atmosphere of freedom and unbridled creativity, sometimes forming odd couples yet more often lifelong bonds...
